Mark's Musings

Clearly the season of spring cleaning is already underway, both at our homes and here at church. In fact, our annual Grubby Sunday is scheduled for May 7th, with lots of projects involving a variety of skill sets from simple to more difficult.

This time of year takes on a special sense of urgency among graduating high school seniors preparing for college or vocation, not to mention United Methodist pastors who are typically appointed to new congregations at the beginning of summer. (Thankfully, I'm not on the move list for this year!) Still, I can't help but reminisce about the many helping hands we received from friends and neighbors, including church members, in those years involving a move. And I don't take that for granted, knowing that helping can be challenging, for our muscles and our minds. For example, we sometimes fall into the error of accompanying our help with gripe. 'It's really someone else's job/responsibility, but I'm doing it because it has to be done, grr...' But does it really have to be done?

Most things we simply choose to do and deceive ourselves (and others) into thinking that if we don't do it then it won't get done. If you're doing something only to gripe about it, why are you doing it in the first place? You're only making yourself and everyone else miserable, not to mention enabling the person potentially responsible to take a vacation at your expense.

We are blessed to have a lot of helpers around our church, and I appreciate every single one of you who always do it with a generous heart and a smile on your face- from meals provided at funerals to corralling children at play, liturgists on Sunday morning and leaders of support groups on midweek evenings, the collection and distribution of food and clothes for the poor and homeless.

Thanks to all of you who make Green Mountain UMC such a friendly and joyful place to be. A regular visitor recently commented to me that she had never attended a church like ours that had such a genuine and joyful fellowship time every Sunday following worship. And I replied that that doesn't just happen by accident. It takes a lot of help, and the right kind- the very best kind- straight from the heart of the risen Christ.

ADULT EDUCATION

Rev. Debra's Adult Ed Class is talking about prayer this Spring. In April, we started with a discussion of Anne Lamott's book, Help Thanks Wow: The Three Essential Prayers, with a chat about the simple prayer of "Help. We will be looking at Thanks and Wow in the next couple of weeks.

In May, we will explore ways to pray for others as we discuss some thoughts from Jane Vennard's book, Praying for Friends and Enemies. How does intercessory prayer work, do our prayers make a difference, and do we have to pray for our enemies? We will also try praying through our bodies, contemplative prayer, and using our imagination in prayer.

Class meets on Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. through May 21st. No books to purchase and everyone is invited to drop by or join us every week.

Questions? Contact Rev. Debra Juarez at debra.@gmumc.com .
Hope to see you in class!

VOLUNTEER RESPONDERS

There are many opportunities to be of service to others through our church activities. People are needed and invited to join the choir, to usher and greet on Sundays, help with pot lucks and receptions, help host the after church coffee hour.

Volunteers may be called to serve a meal to someone in need, to transport someone to a vital appointment or make phone calls to new people or shut ins. It is a great way to meet new people and help others.

If you would like to have more information about something that interests you, please get in touch with one of the following:

Help Green Mountain UWFAITH co-sponsor Refugee Family through IRC

United Women
in Faith

We Green Mountain United Women in Faith (formerly called UMW) thank you for your outpouring of support for co-sponsoring a refugee family - better referred to as our new neighbors - during our April 23 church service!

Our guest speakers from International Rescue Committee (IRC Colorado) and Marcia Canter from Arvada UMC & President of our UWFAITH district did a great job. And our own sister in Faith Hamu Chigwada brought tears to my eyes during her blessing on the congregation, relating how much we at our church helped her family when they moved to Colorado.

Between our UWFAITH members donations ($110) and our special collection on April 23 ($1623), we at Green Mountain UMC have already collected $1733 - more than half the $3000 needed to sponsor a family through IRC!

We welcome your donations to sponsor a family! There are envelopes for cash donations - put your name/envelope number on them to credit your giving report. Make checks out to GMUMC & write IRC refugee family (or similar) on the memo line. And you can even make a donation with a credit card using the co-sponsor QR code below! It won't go through the church, but it will be credited to our church's donation for sponsorship of our family.

For other hands-on ways to volunteer to co-sponsor, please read the IRC attachments below.

Carolyn Wrapp, Hamu Chigwada & Brenda Bronson have already been trained and are volunteering to help cosponsor our Columbian family with Arvada UMC who arrived April 5. Feel free to contact them as well. Call Carolyn Wrapp (call at 303.986-9881); text/call/email Brenda Bronson (303.941.7634 brendabronsonfpe@gmail.com) or Hamu Chigwada (414.334.3305 hamu.umw@gmail.com).

NEW CO-SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES TO WELCOME REFUGEES

THE CHALLENGE

The war in Ukraine, coupled with the change of government in Afghanistan and the many persistent crises around the world, has pushed the number of people forced to flee conflict, violence and persecution over the staggering milestone of 100 million. The U.S. government responded to this past year's crises by welcoming 76,000 people forced to flee Afghanistan—the largest evacuation of its kind since the Vietnam War—and committing to accepting 100,000 refugees from Ukraine, as well as raising the refugee resettlement ceiling to 125,000 for fiscal year 2022.

Before the Refugee Act of 1980, refugee resettlement in the U.S. was largely conducted privately or through community groups. The act standardized the process and today most refugees in the U.S. are primarily welcomed through resettlement agencies, such as the International Rescue Committee.

There have always been American communities eager to step up to welcome newcomers. However, beginning with the Syrian refugee crisis in 2015 and continuing today as people flee Afghanistan and Ukraine, more local community groups have been offering their help. The IRC and other resettlement agencies have responded to this enthusiasm by integrating community sponsorship at the local and national levels.

BECOME A CO-SPONSOR

Co-sponsorship is a form of community sponsorship available to groups located within 100 miles of participating local IRC offices. These groups provide clearly defined financial and in-kind contributions as well as services for a refugee family, while their efforts are overseen by the local IRC office.

As a co-sponsor, you have the potential to significantly enhance a refugee family's quality of life, including by helping them find better employment opportunities, assisting them with learning English, offering social support and connecting them to opportunities for civic engagement. The services you would provide alongside a local IRC office could include:

- Securing a safe, sanitary and affordable housing unit for the family that is available for at least 6-12 months;
- Ensuring housing is equipped with appropriate household items;
- Greeting and welcoming the family at the airport;
- Providing food and items for basic needs;
- Connecting adults to English classes and employment services;
- Assisting in the gathering of personal identification documents;
- Enrolling minors in school;
- Connecting to cultural orientation and integration services;
- Linking to employment services;
- Facilitating medical follow up and transportation;
- Writing case notes and maintaining case file documentation.

If you or your community is interested in learning more about Co-Sponsorship or ready to start the process, please contact:

A co-sponsor advances the role of communities in the protection, resettlement, and integration of refugees and other vulnerable populations. As a co-sponsor group, local community members commit to providing, in a non-legally binding agreement, clearly defined financial and in-kind contributions and the majority of core services to support a refugee's welcome and integration in partnership with IRC. As a result, the quality of life for refugee families is immeasurably enhanced.

Church Directory

GMUMC Online Directory

There are two ways to access the church online directory with pictures of members, their phone numbers, and emails. The church office will need to have put your information into the directory in order for you to open and use directory.

Here are the two methods.

1. Go to the church website, gmumc.com, and click on "directory" which is on the bottom bar of the home page. You may either download or open the directory. You will need the church password, so call the church office at 303-989-3727 to obtain the directory password.
2. Download the app on your smart phone or tablet: Instant Church Directory by Communication Resources (a yellow church icon). The app will ask for your email address (which must be in the directory), and then you can set a password. You can get the app on Google play, the Kindle store, or the Apple store.

DINNER for 8

Spring and Easter will soon be here which means I'll be working on the Summer, May-August '23, DINNER for 8 groups starting the week of April 24th. If you would like to continue, take a break for the summer, or leave DINNER for 8, please let me know.

If you are new to GMUMC:

The various groups meet once a month at a local restaurant to dine and socialize. It is a great way to get to know others from our church. Each group has 7 or 8 people with a mixture of couples, singles, and occasionally their children. The Team Leader & members of each group decide what days, times, and places work best for them and set up each dinner together towards the end of the evening each time they meet. It is a wonderful opportunity to possibly try new cuisines or suggest your favorites and enjoy an evening of Fellowship, especially now that restaurants are open again. There are a few new restaurants groups may want to try.

New groups are formed every 4 months, giving you the opportunity to get to know more people. If you are interested in trying out or joining Dinner for 8 or you have questions about what we do and how our group works, please contact

News from the Cedar Hill Community Garden

The garden is part of Denver Urban Gardens (DUG) community gardens.

Note: the garden is always unlocked so feel free to visit at any time.

The vision: Feeding our community. "I hope that time spent in the garden can grow not only sustainable food but a community from diverse people and foster a sense of place that brings peace." Lori Osborn.

The Garden is starting to wake up for 2023. The plots are empty, but you will soon see the gardeners digging in the leaves donated by many of you in the fall, used as sheet composting over the winter months. The leaves will also be used to cover the plots once planted and extras used to make compost as "browns" during the growing season – nothing goes to waste.

Garden Plots. We are starting our fourth growing season in 2023, and all of our plots have been spoken for with a wait list of 11 requests for plots. We held our first gardeners' meeting two weeks ago. Our first garden work day will be Saturday, May 20th.

Bees. Our bees did not survive the -20° weather. We have an Eagle Scout from Boy Scout Troop 989 working with Ali to improve the weather protection for the hives. Ali and her bee keepers will reestablish the hives this Spring. If you would like to learn about bee keeping or help with the hives, contact Ali (mustang.ali@hotmail.com) for more information. You do not have to have a plot in the garden to work with Ali and her team of beekeepers.

What we need:

- Garden tools – As you begin work in your gardens, downsize or clean out your garages and sheds – please think of the Garden and donate your used hand tools, rakes, shovels, wheelbarrows, etc. Any extra tools will be donated to DUG for other Community Gardens.
- Bricks – The brick fund raiser is still on going. Jean Arnold will be placing the brick order at the beginning of April with a 6-8 week delivery for bricks. I have contacted some of you to finalize the “words” for your bricks. This is an ongoing fund raiser so if you would like a brick in the garden and did not originally order, let Jean know (jeanarnold@arnoldarnold.com).
- Donations for scholarship plots. Two of the plots in the garden are scholarship plots. Thank you for your 2022 donations making these plots possible for gardeners in 2023. The cost to support a scholarship plot is $50 / plot.
