Mark's Musings

The month of May concludes with Memorial Day, and welcomes the unofficial start to the summer season. Memorial Day, or Decoration Day (as it was formerly known), was originally conceived to honor the graves of Civil War soldiers with flags and flowers. Evolving over time, it now honors the American deceased of all wars, complete with prayers offered in remembrance of the fallen and their ultimate sacrifice. The practice of Christian discipleship, though, goes even beyond a soldier's sacrifice in combat to a much different kind of engagement with the enemy.

Of Gods And Men is a movie about the true story of a group of Trappist monks (the marines of the various Christian monastic orders) living among an impoverished Algerian Muslim community at the end of the 20th century, trapped between a militaristic government and a band of religious-extremist guerillas, both of whom threaten their very existence. After much discussion and prayerful discernment they decide to remain rather than to flee abandoning the village people they serve and have come to love. Sadly, the consequences are dire. Most of the monks are kidnapped and murdered. As they are led away into the woods to meet their doom, the film ends with the abbot's prayer, one of the most profound Christian prayers I have ever heard. I was compelled to stop, rewind, and write it down. I have pondered it ever since. I invite you to do the same:

"Should it ever befall me—and it could happen today—to be a victim of the terrorism swallowing up all foreigners here, I would like my community, my church, my family to remember that my life was given to God and this country; that the unique Master of all life was no stranger to this brutal departure. And that my death is the same as so many other violent ones consigned to the apathy of oblivion. I've lived enough to know I am complicit in the evil that, alas, prevails over the world, and the evil that will smite me blindly. I could never desire such a death. I could never feel gladdened that these people I love be accused randomly of my murder. I know the contempt felt for the people here indiscriminately. And I know how Islam is distorted by a certain Islam-ism. This country, and Islam, for me, are something different. Their a body and a soul. My death, of course, will quickly vindicate those who called me naïve or idealistic, but they must know that I will be freed of a burning curiosity, and God willing, will immerse my gaze with the Father's and contemplate with Him His children of Islam as He sees them. This 'thank you' which encompasses my entire life includes you, of course, friends of yesterday and today, and you, too, friend of the last minute, who knew not what you were doing. Yes, to you as well, I address this thank you and this farewell which you envisioned. May we meet again, happy thieves in paradise, if it pleases God, the Father of us both. Amen."

News from the Cedar Hill Community Garden

BY JEAN ARNOLD

The garden is part of Denver Urban Gardens (DUG) community gardens. Note: the garden is always unlocked so feel free to visit at any time. The vision: Feeding our community.

"I hope that time spent in the garden can grow not only sustainable food but a community from diverse people and foster a sense of place that brings peace."
Lori Osborn

Eagle Court of Honor for William Renz April 19, 2025. William and BS Troop 342 Revive the Hive in the Fall of 2024. Jean Arnold attended his Eagle Court of Honor on April 19 at GMUMC.

Since the garden was founded in 2020, the garden has benefitted from the following Eagle Scout and Girl Scout Gold Award projects:

- ⇒ 2020. Painting, repairing and outfitting the two garden sheds. Troop 989.
- ⇒ 2021. Bee homes for solitary bees with community education. (Girl Scout Gold Award).
- ⇒ 2022. Bat boxes. Troop 989 (no bats....yet. Bats are shy and it can take up to 5 years before bat boxes are occupied).
- ⇒ 2023. Garden brick installation. Troop 989
- ⇒ 2024. Revive the Hive Troop 342 built two new bee hives, a foundation, wind break and fencing for our bees.

William Renz

We are excited to announce that Cedar Hill Community Garden at Green Mountain United Methodist Church has been selected as a beneficiary of the King Soopers Fight Hunger Bag Program

Designed in alignment with the King Soopers Zero Hunger | Zero Waste initiative, the Fight Hunger bag program makes it easy for shoppers to impact local hunger relief efforts by simply purchasing a reusable bag. Cedar Hill Community Garden at Green Mountain United Methodist Church will receive a $1 donation for every $2.50 reusable Fight Hunger bag sold during June and July 2025 at:
King Soopers — 12043 W Alameda Pkwy in Lakewood CO

Garden Workday. The Garden's first workday for 2025 was on May 17, 2025, and well attended by 19 gardeners: Weeding (lots of weeding); path refurbishment with crusher fines (watch the pile go down as we continue to apply the fines to the paths); compost; clean sheds and prepare for bee arrival on May 18. See pictures.
(Thank you to Boyd and Sharon Berry for donating the rototiller).

Bee Update. The bees arrived on May 18, 2025. Beekeeper Ali Young reports: "The bees are successfully installed into the hive woohoo! They should be pretty calm. They already have a mated queen they know and accept, so they should be fairly unnoticeable from the garden. If they are feeling cranky please let Ali know and we can schedule an inspection. Usually crankiness means something happened to the queen. Thanks for supporting the bees!"

Spring Brick Fundraiser 2025. During May and June (until Father's Day) the garden will be taking orders for Engraved Bricks to be placed under the shade pergola. Jean and Rich Arnold will pay the additional $10 so that your brick can have a picture. See Jean after church to place your order or fill out the brick order form located on the table near the peanut butter – put the form in the "garden" mailbox. The bricks will be ordered and later installed on a future work day. ?

Upcoming:

Donations for scholarship plots – Thank you for your past generosity. Two of the plots in the garden are scholarship plots. The scholarships were awarded in April. Thank you for your 2024 donations making these plots possible for 2025 gardeners. The cost to support a scholarship plot is $50 / plot. The Cedar Hill garden has some of the lowest plot fees in the DUG network thanks to your support, this allows our community members to garden and grow food for their families.

Sunday June 8th is Pentecost Sunday
Join us in wearing red.

Please feel free to bring a red candle from home to be placed on the altar before the service and lit during the service.

The red candles are symbolic of the Holy Spirit's descent and the fire that accompanied it.

The color red is used in church to represent joy, strength, the fire of faith, and the dynamism of the Holy Spirit.

What do you call a gathering of quilters? A BLOCK party.

Take a look at what GMUMC's "BLOCK Party" created!

The quilters spent nearly 600 hours during four months to complete the 91 quilts and receiving blankets displayed April 27th.

The group intends to give quilts to Denver Health's Newborns in Need program and Children's Hospital in the near future. The hope is to provide some warmth and comfort to those receiving one of these special quilts.

Interested in joining the group? You're in luck. No previous quilting experience is needed and all the tools and materials are provided for you to use! We meet at GMUMC, 9:30 AM on Thursdays.

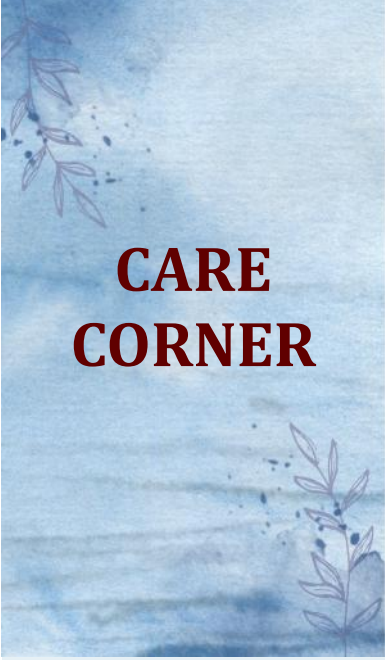

A little quilting HUMOR ;)

We won't say that quilts are superior to comforters – we refuse to make blanket statements.

Did you hear about the quilter who was also a standup comic? She left everyone in stitches.

We know a guy who writes songs about sewing machines – He's a Singer-songwriter.

I was going to tell you a joke about a blunt needle, but now it seems pointless.
